Subject: For Awareness: PFAS Leg. Hearing

All,

I wanted to flag for you that I just heard from our friends on the E&C Minority that the committee Dems are prepping to potentially hold a legislative hearing on PFAS on May 8th. We have not been invited to testify and it is unclear what specific bills they would consider taking up. (Though based on the committee members, I would anticipate the PFAS Action Act would be a part of it.) Additionally, Jerry suggested he thought they may try and roll in the Ban Asbestos Now Act.

As I hear more, or if the Democrats elect to request an EPA witness, I will keep everyone posted. Please let me know if you have any questions.
